
MyPath Newsletter #4

October 2023

Dear readers,

As we release our final newsletter, it's a moment to reflect on our incredible journey and celebrate the milestones achieved in empowering skilled migrant and ethnic minority women through vocational education and training.

Project Highlights

➤ Training Toolkit Success

We created an innovative and comprehensive training toolkit, tailored to address the unique needs of skilled migrant and ethnic minority women. The toolkit, encompassing a wide range of modules from basic skills to advanced vocational training, has been a cornerstone of our project, receiving acclaim for its effectiveness and accessibility. It has empowered numerous women, equipping them with essential skills for socio-economic integration.

➤ Mentoring Program Successes

Our mentoring program has been a heartwarming chapter of our project. We've witnessed numerous stories of growth, resilience, and achievement. Mentors and mentees have formed lasting bonds, transcending cultural and professional barriers, and paving the way for a more inclusive and diverse vocational landscape. The evidence being also the role model videos produced with the migrant women themselves.

➤ Innovative Learning methodology

Embracing the digital era, our project innovated in gamified and interactive learning methods. These approaches have not only made learning more engaging but also accessible, allowing participants to learn at their own pace and in their own space.
